Maya's Dance

Signy, Helen

1942, Sawin, Poland: sixteen-year-old Maya Schulze is struggling to survive in a brutal Nazi labour camp. But despite days filled with hunger, fear and despair, she is able to find courage and beauty in dancing – it is only then that she feels free. One day a camp guard watches Maya perform, and both their destinies are changed for ever. Jan falls in love with Maya and promises to protect her; Maya lives for their stolen moments together, when her heart can dance again.

Consider Me

Mack, Becka

The first book in a series that is climbing the charts globally.

In the ice-hockey romance that has taken TikTok by storm, the ultimate player turns romantic in order to win over the woman he is desperate to be with. Carter Beckett is the NHL's best player – both on and off the ice. His career is at its peak, his team is performing better than ever, and there's no shortage of women to spend the night with. What more could he want?

Play With Me

Mack, Becka

The second book in a series that is climbing the charts globally.

Garrett Andersen knows that playing professional hockey requires absolute dedication to the rules. There's just one rule he's finding very difficult to follow: stay away from the captain's younger sister. As a professional dancer, Jennie Beckett knows what it takes to excel. She prides herself on being every bit as confident and bold as her brother, sassy as hell, and the only person in charge of her pleasure.
