

WELCOME TO THE FUTURE!

WELL, THE FUTURE BOOK AUTHORLESS EVENT KIT.

Complete with 3 activities for the young – and young at heart – to enjoy, this kit allows everyone to explore what life is like in the future and help craft their own future too. (We already know, but we're sharing a little peek into it for you.)

The Future Book

By Mac Barnett,

Illustrated by Shawn Harris

Inside this kit, you have 3 different activities:

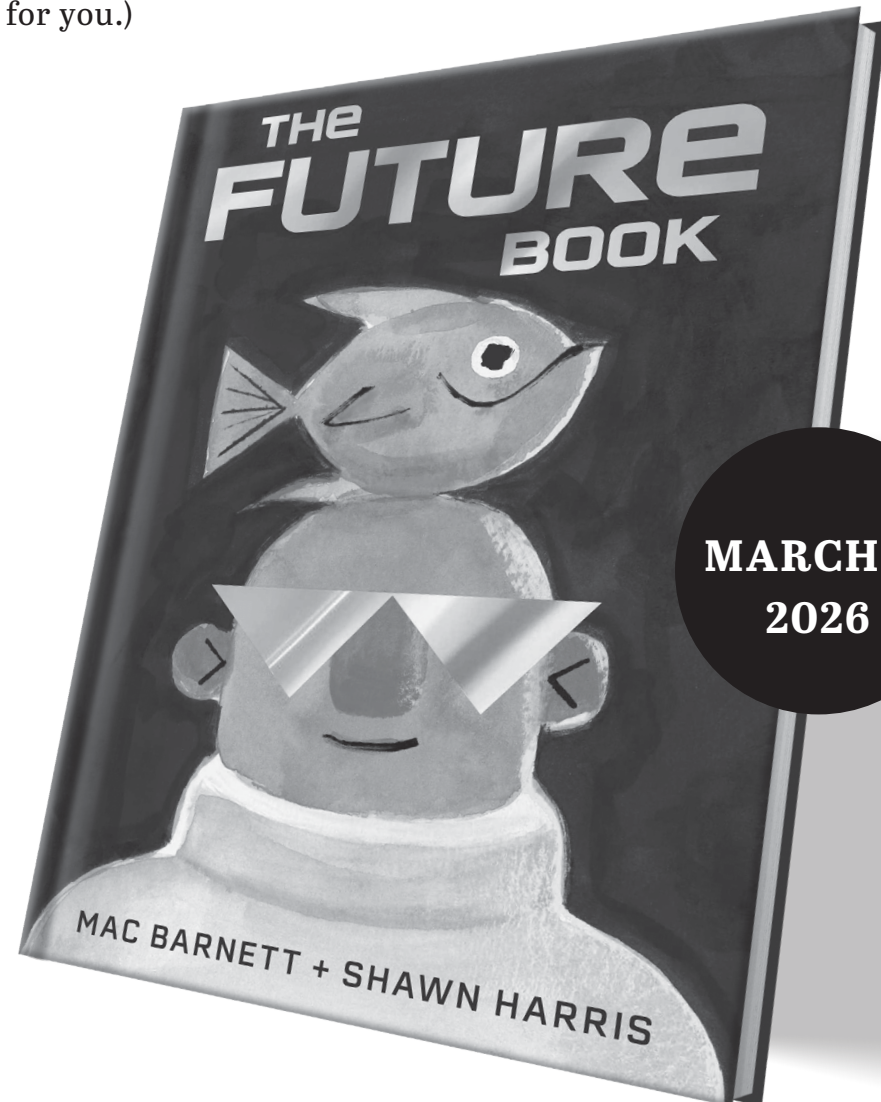

- Design Your Own Futuristic Glasses
- Design Your Own Fish Headband.
- The Future Quiz (and answer sheet)

Don't worry – if you use all the activity sheets in this kit, you can download the original files and print more copies. Files come in both black and white and in colour. (Told you, we're from the future. We've thought of everything!)

You Smell Like a Baby!

DESIGN YOUR OWN FUTURISTIC GLASSES!

- 1 Decorate the glasses however you like!
Use coloured pencils, crayons, paint, stickers or whatever you prefer.
- 2 Once the design is finished, ask an adult to help you cut out the glasses.
Remember to follow the dotted line!
- 3 Poke through the 2 holes on each end of the glasses – you can use pens, pencils or pop-sticks.
These are so you can hold your glasses.
- 4 Now you have your very own custom future glasses!

THE FUTURE QUIZ

How well do you know the future?

Match the words and images to find out!

DESIGN YOUR OWN FISH HEADBAND!

- 1 Decorate the fish and headband however you like! Use coloured pencils, crayons, paint, stickers or whatever you prefer.
- 2 Once the design is finished, ask an adult to help you cut out the fish headband. Remember to follow the dotted line!
- 3 Use glue or sticky tape to join the two patterned ends of the headband together to form a loop around your head.
- 4 Now you have your very own custom fish headband. Give it to someone you want to say 'thank you' to, and make sure they put it on their head. That's how you say thank you in the future after all!
