THE SPIRIT OF BIRDS

Mark Smith

Calls echoing through fog, iridescent feathers catching brilliant colors in the morning light, fierce aerial battles where talons tangle and feathers fall like snow, tender gestures, and moments of quiet contemplation. No two threads alike. No two stories the same. Waiting countless hours in silence, hiding in blinds, walking through rain, snow, mud, and unbearable sweltering heat just for the chance to get closer to them. After so much time with the birds, Mark Smith began to see something unexpected: a reflection. Their struggles mirrored our own. Their resilience, their instinct to protect, to adapt, to create, to love . . . it spoke to something deep and human. This book is a testimony to not only the spirit of birds (raw, resilient, emotional, and deeply alive), but the parts of our own spirit that we so often forget.

Alejandra Graf

Comemos (let's eat or we eat) is Alejandra Graf calling her family, friends, and readers to the table. Her fresh, contemporary, and vegan Mexican recipes, often with dairy and meat options, and warm writing style, make sure that everyone is welcome and well fed.

Her challenge was to create delicious, healthy, easy recipes that would appeal to vegans and omnivores alike. She shared her recipes through her blogs, Piloncillo&Vainilla and AleCooks. In the cookbook's chapter openers and recipe headnotes Graf puts her recipes in Mexico's rich cultural context.

WANDER

EXPLORING LACMA'S DAVID GEFFEN GALLERIES

LACMA

Designed by Pritzker Prize-winning architect Peter Zumthor, the new building offers more than ninety gallery spaces across a single, elevated level, without a fixed path or prescribed narrative. Instead, artworks from the ancient world to today are organized around four bodies of water—the Atlantic Ocean, Mediterranean Sea, Indian Ocean, and Pacific Ocean—revealing networks of exchange, migration, and influence that span continents and centuries.

Whether you follow the oceanic framework or chart your own course through the galleries, Wander invites you to discover more than two hundred works of art spanning diverse histories and geographies—each encounter an opportunity for new perspectives on creative expression.

AN ARCHITECTURAL GUIDEBOOK TO LOS ANGELES

UPDATED SIXTH EDITION

David Gebhardt and Robert Winter, updated by Robert Inman

First published by the Los Angeles County Museum of Art in 1965, An Architectural Guidebook to Los Angeles has long been the definitive reference to the region's built environment. Extensively revised and rigorously updated since its fifth edition in 2003, this sixth edition expands the guide to ninety-six sections across thirteen geographic chapters, adding more than two hundred new entries to thousands of listings that document the full breadth of Los Angeles County's architecture, and noting structures lost in the 2025 Eaton and Palisades fires. Coverage spans from the missions of Spanish California to projects completed in 2017, offering a survey of the city's evolving landscape.

WHEN A MOOSE HAS A MUSTACHE

Illustrated by Sam Caldwell

“When a bear has a mustache, it straightens when he growls.”

“When a coyote has a mustache, it droops down when he prowls.”

This oversized board book with gatefolds is a silly story of forest animals sporting different mustaches. Kids will love to see the anthropomorphized animals, including a moose with a hiking stick, a toad with a fishing pole, a coyote catching fireflies in a jar, and a mouse roasting marshmallows over the campfire. Sam Caldwell’s playful, stylized, and vibrant illustrations bring the characters and humor to life.

SAM CALDWELL is a children’s illustrator and designer based in Glasgow, UK. He grew up in the north of England and studied painting at the Edinburgh College of Art.

Welcome to Autumn 2026 at Gibbs Smith!

For more than 50 years, Gibbs Smith has published exceptional books in home and design, earning a reputation for bold, beautiful titles that celebrate architecture, interiors, and the creative minds behind them. This season continues that tradition with five inspiring new books from talented designers, photographers, and experts in the field.

In their first book, Fearless Design (page 4), designers Beth Dotolo and Carolina Gentry of Pulp Design Studios go beyond creating beautiful spaces—they design homes that tell a story and elevate the lifestyles of the people who live in them.

In her first book, Heirloom Design (page 5), designer Anissa Zajac shares her signature approach to creating homes filled with warmth and an authentic, lived-in sensibility that reflect who we are and where we've been.

Journalist Jessica Ritz celebrates the joys and challenges of desert living and the awe-inspiring home designs and landscapes that keep people coming back for more in Desert Dreaming (page 6).

In her fifth book, Courtney Allison shares how she celebrates each season at her home and in her garden in French Country Cottage Seasons (page 7).

In Private Homes of Santa Barbara (page 8), author-photographer Holly Lepere in explores the gorgeous architecture and luxurious interiors of large estates, historical renovations, intimate sanctuaries, and mountain retreats of Santa Barbara.

As an employee-owned, majority female-owned, mission-driven B Corp, Gibbs Smith believes in our people, our communities, and our customers. We are grateful for the opportunity to bring beautiful books and thoughtful gift products to you and your customers.

Thank you, as always, for your continued and much-appreciated support of Gibbs Smith Book & Gift. Please reach out to your Simon & Schuster sales representative or customer service team with any questions or orders. See opposite page for more information.

All the best,
