THE LITTLEST YAK: HOME IS WHERE THE HERD IS

By Lu Fraser

Illustrated by Kate Hindley

Imprint: Simon & Schuster UK

This fantastic, heartwarming follow-up to the internationally bestselling, award-winning The Littlest Yak and The Littlest Yak: The New Arrival takes Gertie and her family to pastures new.

"But a home," Mummy smiled, "is about so much more than the books on the shelf or the toys on the floor."

When the ice starts melting, it's time for the yaks to move on and find a new mountain. Gertie's mum tells her that home is about more than the things that you pack, but Gertie's not so sure. She tries to squash and squeeze everything they own onto her sledge. But, oh no! It seems she's left behind the most important thing of all . . . her baby sister, Dotty! Perhaps home isn't about the things you have after all.

QUIET

By Tom Percival
Illustrated by Richard Jones
Imprint: Simon & Schuster UK

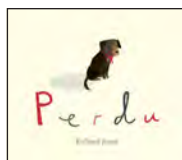

A touching tale of courage and how sometimes the smallest voice can deliver the biggest message. From award-winning creators Tom Percival and Richard Jones, collaborating for the first time.

Once there lived a bird with a bright turquoise flash on one wing. Her woodland home is full of the chatter of all kinds of birds . . . so much so that her little voice gets drowned out. But when a machine comes to tear down the trees, she finds a way to make that little voice stronger, unite all the creatures of the wood, and save their home.

A lyrical, moving picture book from the author of The River and the illustrator of Little Bear that reminds us that everyone can make a difference.

VIRGINIA AND THE ANGEL (W.T.)

By Issy Emenev

Illustrated by Chris Mould

Imprint: Simon & Schuster UK

Deliciously dark and with the most fantastic twist, this hilarious cautionary tale is the perfect book for children who like their stories with a bit of bite!

Virginia was a tyrant, a bully and a brat, who was rude to sweet old ladies, and tormented next door's cat.

Then one day the doorbell rings and Virginia meets Julian. Her mother calls him an angel and insists he share Virginia's room, but Virginia has never shared in her life! Obviously, Julian must go. But where has he come from? And why is he here?

Perhaps he's not quite as angelic as he appears. . . .

With gloriously gothic illustrations from Chris Mould, this fabulously dark tale is perfect for parents looking for the picture book equivalent of Roald Dahl's twisted tales.

STOP! THAT'S NOT MY STORY

By Smriti Halls

Illustrated by Erika Meza

Imprint: Simon & Schuster UK

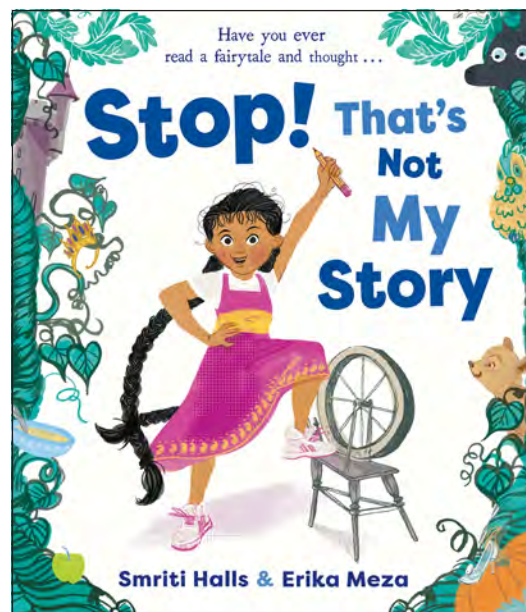

A joyful, empowering call to be the hero of your OWN story!

A girl opens up a book looking for the story that's perfect for HER, and she tumbles inside. But Goldilocks is not her story, and Jack and the Beanstalk is not her story, and Little Red Riding Hood is not her story. . . . There's only one thing for it: she's going to have to write her own story—and the hero will be HER.

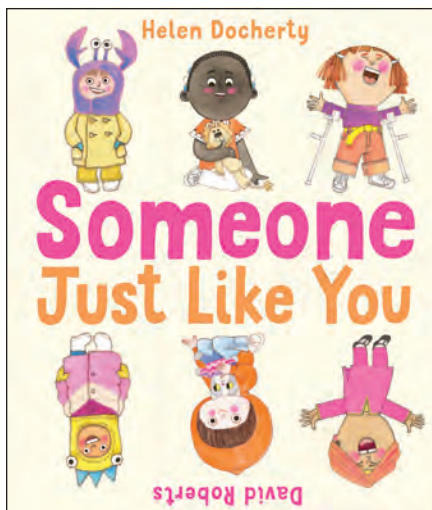

A celebration of the stories we all love and the stories we are yet to write, this vivid, irresistible picture book introduces the terrific new partnership of bestselling author Smriti Halls and illustrator Erika Meza.

A STONE IS A STORY

By Leslie Barnard Booth
Illustrated by Marc Martin
Imprint: Margaret K. McElderry Books

Follow a stone's journey through time as it faces ice, water, wind, and scorching heat in this beautiful nonfiction picture book that is Seeds Move! meets A Stone Sat Still.

"Where do rocks come from?"

The answer may be more incredible than you think! After all, a stone is not just a stone: a stone is a story. Embark on a journey across time to see how one stone can change and transform: from magma under Earth's crust to the sand swept up by a rushing river, to the very heart of the tallest mountain. Watch what happens when rain, ice, and wind mold this rock into something new, something you might even hold in your hand—something full of endless possibility.

Complete with additional information about geology and the rock cycle, this lyrical and captivating story invites readers to experience the wonder of the natural world around us and to see—in every cliff, pebble, and stone—a window into Earth's deep past.

By Jeff Newman

Imprint: Simon & Schuster Books for Young Readers

From celebrated illustrator Jeff Newman comes a delightfully funny wordless picture book about a very greedy worm, a very large apple, and the importance of sharing with friends.

The greedy worm has his eye on a very big apple and he does NOT want to share with any of the other hungry bugs. In fact, he eats the whole thing himself in one giant chomp to keep them away. But when a bird starts eyeing the now plump (and sluggish) greedy worm, he'll need those bugs he snubbed to keep the feaster from becoming the feast. And he might just learn a thing or two about sharing in the process. . . .

YOU GO FIRST

By Ariel Bernstein
Illustrated by Marc Rosenthal
Imprint: Paula Wiseman Books

In the spirit of Mo Willems and Ben Clanton, this charming, laugh-out-loud picture book shows how a good friend can become even better by trying new things and putting others first.

Cat and Duck are very good friends and play together all the time, so when the new slide gets built, they can't wait to try it out! Only, the slide is very big and curvy. What if it's too big for Cat? As Cat and Duck move closer to the front of the line, Cat imagines everything that could go wrong until his worries start to rub off on Duck. Now Duck doesn't want to go down the slide either.

Cat feels bad that Duck is missing out on the fun because of him. Can he find a way to make it right?

SISTERS OF SWORD AND SHADOW

By Laura Bates
Imprint: Simon & Schuster UK

What if the Knights of the Round Table had been women? An epic fantasy duology from the UK's leading and bestselling feminist writer—for fans of Leigh Bardugo and Sarah J. Maas

A woman with sharp, straight brows tightened together, with hair the colour of the last autumn leaves twisted tight to the nape of her neck, with a split in her lip that shone bright with cherry fresh blood. A woman with her legs encased tight in shining leather, fine boots gripping tight to the horse's flanks. She held out her hand. "Well then. Are you coming?"

Cass is supposed to be celebrating her sister's wedding and awaiting her own arranged marriage. But when a beautiful leather-clad woman rides up and offers to take her away, Cass doesn't hesitate. Introduced to a group of women working to right the wrongs of men, Cass is drawn into a world of ancient feuds, glorious battles, and deadly intrigue. Destiny awaits in the Sisterhood of Silk Knights.

A moving and uplifting novel about finding help where you need it, from the internationally acclaimed author and illustrator of The Hunt for the Nightingale

Nora's mum has good days and bad days, but the bad days are getting worse. When rainbow-shimmering ghost animals begin to appear, she's convinced that they hold the answers. Along with new friend Kwame, Nora follows a glittering ghostly fox, hare, raven, and otter on the adventure of a lifetime, helping her to find the strength she needs to help herself and her mum.

A beautiful story about the magic of friendship, Sarah Ann Jukes's stunning second middle-grade novel was selected as Waterstones Children's Book of the Month and was a top-ten children's fiction title on release.

"An iridescent story that shines with hope and love." —Katya Balen

ALL THE WAY DOWN

By Stewart Foster

Imprint: Simon & Schuster UK

A life-affirming story about friendship, adventure, and self-belief, for fans of Holes and A Kind of Spark

When three eleven-year-old "problem children" are thrown together at summer camp, they're challenged to build a place to live together for the next week. But after a trip to a disused tin mine goes awry, Milo and his new friends Oscar and Effie soon find themselves split off from the group and trapped underground. Can they work through their individual issues and come together as a team to find their way to freedom?

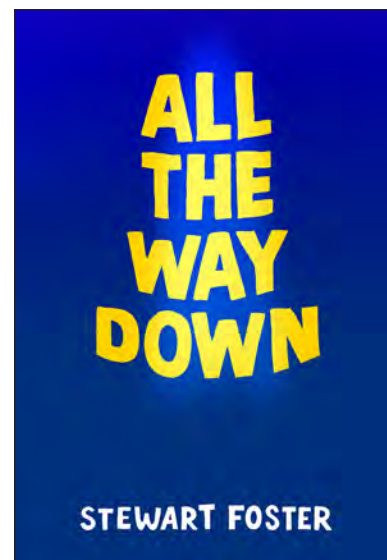

Critically acclaimed and award-winning Stewart Foster's latest standalone marks a more adventurous direction for the author while still packing his signature emotional punch.

VILLAINS ACADEMY: HOW TO STEAL A DRAGON

By Ryan Hammond

Imprint: Simon & Schuster UK

Being BAD has never felt so GOOD! The second book in the villainously funny, highly illustrated young middle-grade series from author-illustrator Ryan Hammond. For fans of Amelia Fang, Dog Man, and Grimwood

It's the start of the winter term and there's a new teacher in town at Villains Academy—the notorious dragon-rider Felix Frostbite. Class Z are in awe of him and his lessons on venomous beasts and mythical creatures, but werewolf Bram and his friends the Cereal Killers are suspicious. Soon they uncover Felix Frostbite's evil plan to steal all the dragons from the Wicked Woods and leave Villains Academy undefended. Have the gang learnt enough to outsmart their troublesome teacher, or will Felix Frostbite's heist go down in villain history?

This unmissable series was acquired in a twenty-four-hour preempt. A knockout package with funny and atmospheric illustrations throughout.
